2011-12 Season

Street Corner Symphony

September 23, 2011 – 7pm
Dixon Historic Theatre

Street Corner Symphony competed in THE SINGOFF for 2010 – the hit reality show for vocal ensembles on NBC TV. They almost won the $100,000 prize and recording contract, but ended up as the runner-up.

The group is comprised of two sets of brothers. One set can claim legendary gospel singer Bill Shaw from The Blackwood Brothers as their grandfather. Five of the members are preacher's kids and grew up with great church music. Even with this religious and gospel background – Street Corner Symphony has an expansive repertoire including songs from Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, The Beach Boys, Stevie Wonder, Tears for Fears, Earth Wind and Fire, Elvis, the Beatles and current hit makers U2. They also have a good list of original songs.

Bottom Line Duo

February 6, 2012 – 7pm
Dixon High School

The Bottom Line Duo – husband and wife Spencer and Traci Hoveskeland – will play a concert of classics and pops on a 300 year old Italian string bass and a 140 year old French cello, blended together with a large portion of humor and fun.

Billed as “21st Century Parlor Music” the Bottom Line Duo, has been thrilling audiences with their fast fingers, wit and bows. They deliver a program with roots in chamber music and an amazing repertoire of modern and popular sounds.

They have produced six CDs, a full symphony show, several appearances on NPR and performances at the Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall.

“They have a flair for playing with excitement and humor. You can truly hear the fun they are having.”
–Victory Music Review

Bonus Concert!

Metales M5

April 15, 2012 – 7pm
Dixon High School

The group is led by German ex-pat Alexander Freund on first trumpet who lives about 100 miles west of Mexico City. The other members also live in and around Mexico City.

Their programming is nicely balanced between classical pieces and lighter, “pops” tunes including a 007 segment and finishing off with some rousing Mexican folk tunes all played in appropriate costumes.

Other pieces that may be heard in the program include Barber's Adagio, Gershwin's Summertime, Star Wars Theme, Flight of the Bumblebee and selections from West Side Story.

“What do you get when you mix the shenanigans of the Blues Brothers with the musical seriousness of the Canadian Brass? Metales M5!”
– Omaha World-Herald

Anderson & Roe

October 31, 2011 – 7pm
Centennial Auditorium
Sterling High School

Greg and Liz are perhaps the most thrilling young piano duet team performing today. They met in 2000 as freshmen at The Juilliard School and formed their dynamic musical partnership shortly thereafter. They have since toured North America with notable performances in LA, San Francisco, Washington DC, and other major cities, as well as in nearly every NYC venue from Carnegie Hall to children's hospitals. Together, they have appeared on MTV, NPR, the Cliburn Concert Series, and many summer chamber music festivals. The piano duo released their debut album, Reimagine, in 2008.

“Electrifying and Riviting ...when the concert goes too quickly, it's a sign that the concert was excellent, well-paced and most enjoyable.”
–The Cyprus Mail, 2009
